

Conversations @ Home

Loud Tables 301

Participants: Anyone and all in the home

Interactive conversations, face-to-face conversations among all or some in the home.

Objectives:

- Hold deeper conversations of a spiritual nature.
- Home members will build on established conversation rhythms to go deeper.
- Home members will continue to nurture one another through trust and support.

Activities

1. Invite deeply mature Christian friends to a meal and share your walks with Jesus.
2. Intentionally invite your household into deeper conversations on special occasions.
3. Write a letter together to a close friend or family member who is away.
4. Do a craft or puzzle together.
5. Go camping or hiking together.

Researcher continue to identify that teens want to have deeper conversations with adults who will listen without judgement and share authentically. “Spiritual conversations are something every single person in our household is already hungry for because they were made for such intimacy.” Don Everts, The Spiritually Vibrant Home, Lutheran Hour Ministries, 2020.
